

Google Meet Assessment Criteria

There are methods of accessing Google Meet that learners can use in order to demonstrate proficiency (desktop or mobile). In order for participants to pass, they must meet 100% of the skills outlined under the “Basic Skills” category in either rubric. “Advanced Skills” are outlined as additional tasks that the learner can choose to demonstrate.

Desktop
Basic Skills:	Proficient	Needs Improvement
Demonstrate ability to enter google meet via link
Demonstrate ability to enter google meet via code
Turn on / off your camera
Turn on / off your microphone
Open and send messages in the chat feature
Demonstrate ability to leave the google meet
Advanced Skills:	Proficient	Needs Improvement
Present your screen
Host a google meet
Find and distribute google meet code
Let participants into your google meet
Turn on / off closed captions
Turn on / off blurred background
Use your phone as a speaker for google meet
Call participants into a meeting

Google Meet Assessment Criteria

There are methods of accessing Google Meet that learners can use in order to demonstrate proficiency (desktop or mobile). In order for participants to pass, they must meet 100% of the skills outlined under the “Basic Skills” category in either rubric. “Advanced Skills” are outlined as additional tasks that the learner can choose to demonstrate.

Mobile
Basic Skills:	Proficient	Needs Improvement
Demonstrate ability to join google meet via code or dialing in Turn on / off camera
Turn on / off microphone
Demonstrate ability to leave google meet
Advanced Skills: [App Only]	Proficient	Needs Improvement
Open chat
Send message in chat
Present your screen
Stop presenting your screen
Turn on / off closed captions
Pin participants to your screen		